

USING AAC

To participate and connect

AAC creates opportunities

For non-speaking children, or those who experience challenges with speaking, having access to augmentative and alternative communication (AAC) provides a way to:

Make choices

The red one,
please!

Agree or disagree

Nope
Mmhm
Stop!

Invite a friend to play

Let's play tag!

Greet others

Hi!
See ya!

Ask for things

Can I have a drink?

Make comments

This ice cream is yummy.

Get attention

Hey, mom!

Tell stories

Today at school I...

Express feelings

So exciting!
I'm sad.

Because everyone deserves to be heard, included, and belong!